

Austin Peay State University Showcase

“My experiences with Tablex have been nothing but great.” says Pat Kelley, project designer with A-Z Office Resource, Inc. “ I have always recieved prompt service from the manufacturer, as well as our sales representative. Tablex stands 100% behind their product, and they work diligently to ensure the orders ship in a timely manner. The customer service department is superb! Using Tablex has certainly saved money for our customers.”

When Austin Peay State, a fast growing Tennessee University, began their search for classroom tables, they realized very quickly that not only did Tablex have the experience with university requirements but offered the highest quality tables with the most competitive price.
